The Processing integration allows easy access to change some basic layout features as well as filters for searching the organizations. The layout features that can be changed are the button sizes, background color/gradient, and text sizes. The filters for type, request, and distance can also be changed from processing to allow the student to decide what types of organizations and requests users should be allowed to use.

Without Processing (default)

Modified from Processing